Santa Fe Buying Fuel Oil

J. T. Cantrell, representing the Santa Fe oil department, has been here all day, away where his company closed up contracts to the extent of 2,000 barrels. He says that if the buyers will loosen up a bit, only he will be able to move the oil which is now handicapping many refineries, who are moving and will increase the freight traffic from this community, which will be highly appreciated by the refiners as well as the railroads.

Texas Production Figures

DALLAS, Texas, March 27.—The saw saw of the daily output of north central and north Texas oil fields continues. This week's figures show a decline of from 20,000 barrels to 87,000 barrels in the growth central or deep sand dune areas of two or three wells in Stephens county of Lake Fork production. The northern Wichita Falls district produced from 62,000 barrels to 64,000 barrels due to 21 completions at Burkhardt during the week, including two new 1,000-barrel wells drilled in by the McMan Oil company on the Hardin 40 acres.
